About Headwaters

Headwaters Charitable Trust was formed in 1989 as a nonprofit to enhance the lives of all people living in Western and Central Pennsylvania. We do this through building philanthropic investments that encourage families to live work and play in the region.

We administer grants, promote value added revenue, acquire land rights on behalf of project sponsors to support efforts that benefit green jobs, youth engagement, community agriculture and natural resource restoration.

Over the past 30 years, we have worked in partnership with more than 125 community groups, businesses and landowners to enhance the natural assets of our region by improving a 130 miles of streams, developing 144 miles of recreational trails and sustaining green jobs in restoration, tourism and agriculture.

Headwaters Charitable Trust continues to improve the quality, value, and extent of our resource base. Because of our work, many cially con-
